Four and Twenty Drinks Menu

Here at Four and Twenty we offer a good range of drinks from our bar to compliment an extensive list of wines by the glass, carafe and bottle.
Our ever-evolving wine list changes regularly to mirror our produce-led seasonal Cumbrian Menus, using Coravin's technology to enable our lovely guests to experience some very special wines by the glass. We are also continuously studying wine, identifying the most interesting wines through annual trips to wine-growing regions all over the world.
Suggested pairings for each dish on the à la carte menu and set menu, which allows our guests to optimise their experience for each course of their meal.
Our knowledgeable front of house staff can make further recommendations to suit the guests personal taste.
For those preferring to choose wine by the bottle, there is a good choice of traditional and more unusual varieties and blends.

Champagne Constantine Solarris,

Champagne, France

A rare 100% Pinot Meunier Champagne made by a young grower. Aged in a Soléra system, which is a method consisting of blending various harvests in a tiered system of barrels. A Champagne coming from a soléra method, always contains a part of the first harvest. This method allows the wine to age but also creates a blending throughout the years in order to respect the style of the house. This champagne has a distinctive, rich and savoury character. The intensity of the Meunier stands out with ripe fruits notes, leaving an explosive and intense sensation. A real Champagne lover's find.
